

Selling Your Practice? Don't Let a Lifetime of Equity Slip Away!

The decision to sell your practice just might be the most important decision of your career. Just the thought of selling creates a number of questions and concerns.

- I'm a corporation. How do I sell it?
- Should I renew my lease?
- Will a remodel or new equipment increase the value of my practice?
- If I sell my practice myself, what would I have to know?
- What taxes will I pay out of the sale proceeds?

PPT's specialists are dental professionals who have become brokers and agents. Their "insider's" knowledge of the dental industry will give you the advantages you'll need to plan for a successful practice transition. We offer seminars and consultations that provide you with valuable information and answer your most troubling questions concerning your practice's sale.
